TAYLOR, Gertrude Sarah (Gertie)

Mar 3, 1933 - Jun 24, 2022

Born March 3, 1933, Gert passed away in her own home in the company of family on June 24, 2022, at the age of 89. Gertie lived a full active and happy life. She lived in the home that served as a gathering place over 50 years. Her door was always open and everyone was welcomed. At times it seemed the world passed through her front door. It was truly amazing the number of family and friends who would decide as the were driving by her home to just stop in and say hello. You never knew who you would see as a surprise guest anytime you visited. She had guests from the Yukon to Ontario and all places in between. Gertie had a large family, extended family, and friends. At times we felt she was too active. If mom wanted something done for her you had better do it pronto or you would discover her climbing ladders to pick apples or washing windows. Her front walks were always cleared of snow by 5am. Mom was a joy and delight to listen to, confide in or try to best in her frequent poker games. A truly remarkable woman who lived life on her terms and died in the home she had so many happy memories in. She was predeceased by her first husband Blain Taylor in 1993 after 43 years of happy marriage. She married Ross Fallis in March of 1996 and they had happy years together until his death in August of 2010. She was also predeceased by a brother Tom Armstrong (Margaret), two sisters; Hildora Reilly (Harold), and Dianne Walls (Gary). Mom is survived by her 4 adult children Terry (Betty), Barry (Gloria), Larry (Lorraine), and Gerry (Chris). She is also survived by 3 sisters and 1 brother; Ken Armstrong (Norma), Shirley Schwartz, Julianna Bergey (Hank), and Betty Henderson (Ken). She has 11 grandchildren and 20 great-grandchildren who were an endless delight to her. Hopefully they will retain fond memories of Grandma Gert's special toy closet filled with timeless toys that served generations of children. Funeral Service will be held at Holy Trinity Anglican Church, 3572 33rd Street, on Wednesday June 29 at 11:30am.

Retro New Moon

The hearth burns brighter when the moon wears her darkest gown -- or, in the case of the Cancer new moon, apron. It's a lunar domestic moment to rival spring's notion of cleaning. Make the home cozy and beautiful, and moods follow suit. The long retrograde of Neptune begins now, too, suggesting retro styles will be especially dreamy.

ARIES (March 21-April 19). It takes an amazingly long time to complete a project you happen to be ignoring. Once you get busy on it, the energy will come. If you decide it's not for you, this will also free up energy. It's the in-between that drains.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20). Strange visions will unfold as you sleep, but the best ones happen while you're awake. Sharing dreams of either sort can be tricky. Telling a journal or no one at all will be better than risking invalidation.

GEMINI (May 21-June 21). It takes time and conscious effort to cultivate a support system, but it's well worth the work. It's not that you need the fellowship of encouraging people to survive, but you certainly need it to thrive.

CANCER (June 22-July 22). People who want your attention and other precious resources you possess may try to convince you that you owe them. False. You get to choose how you engage with the world, which includes the choice not to engage at all.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22). Relationships get complicated, probably because they also get honest. You don't have to sort through it all in one night. It's better to act reasonably than to react emotionally. Let new information sink in over the next three days.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22). Just because you can solve what the others can't doesn't mean you should, at least not right away. Hold back for a minute. Pay attention to the power dynamics. This solution of yours is an ace up the sleeve.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23). Whether you're stuck in a rut or a trap, the answer is the same: wiggle. Wiggling will either show you where you're pinned or liberate you without you even needing to know. Move however you can; you'll get free.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 21). You'll admit what you don't know and as a result become educated, leaving those who think they already know everything at a disadvantage. The intellectual delight of expertise is only made possible through humility.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22-Dec. 21). The mind doesn't generate every idea. It gets many of them from the voice and the body. You often don't know what you think until you start communicating. Your next good idea will be born in a conversation or journal.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19). It takes time to save time. The moments you spend prioritizing and ordering your efforts will ultimately give you back an hour or two. Efficiency is your strength and may soon be your wealth.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 18). Ideally, the answers you seek will connect you with a power source that is already inside you. Beware of those who would rather you believe that answers can only be found through them, as this is the red flag of controlling people.

PISCES (Feb. 19-March 20). A book can't change the world. It's a lump of paper and ink that can't even pour you a cup of coffee. But a person who acts on an idea can change everything. The concepts need you. You'll serve them well today.

TODAY'S BIRTHDAY (June 28). Once you set your intention, your story flows with all the qualities you value in a good tale: continuity, style, poetry and fascinating characters entangled in interesting ways with you at the center of it all. Other highlights: the relief of an obligation fulfilled, and the unlikely turn that has you driving a foreign vehicle. Capricorn and Sagittarius adore you. Your lucky numbers are: 14, 6, 9, 3 and 12.

CELEBRITY PROFILES: Kathy Bates will star in the film version of the beloved Judy Blume novel "Are You There God? It's Me, Margaret." The Academy Award-winning Cancer was born when Mercury was in sharp-witted Gemini. Mars in Virgo is about as hardworking as they come. Saturn, the lessons planet, in Leo, the sign of show business, promises profound life lessons learned and given through the medium entertainment.
